One of our program goals is to increase diversity in our student group. Therefore, we are actively seeking applications from veterans, from underrepresented minority groups, and from students who represent the first in their families to pursue higher education.

The University of New Hampshire is a public institution with a long-standing commitment to equal opportunity for all. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, veteran's status, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, marital status, or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs, services, or activities.
